

Citizens' Instruction to the Representatives
To the General Court of the State of New Hampshire
(Parental Rights Amendment)

Town Name: _____

Whereas Article 32 of the Bill of Rights, Part the First of the Constitution of the State of New Hampshire recognizes the right of the people of the State of New Hampshire to assemble and give instructions to their Representatives to the General Court of the State of New Hampshire, and

Whereas children need parents to lovingly guide their upbringing and education, and

Whereas the amendment of the reference to the fundamental principles of the Constitution of the State of New Hampshire as Evangelical Principles to high principles in Article 6, Part the First of the Constitution of the State of the New Hampshire in 1968 could not have been anticipated to undermine parental rights, and

Whereas the members of the General Court of the State of New Hampshire are our substitutes and agents;

We the undersigned hereby instruct the members of the General Court of the State of New Hampshire to put before the people an amendment to defend their parental rights from the State of New Hampshire as follows: Parents have a natural right to control the health, education and welfare of their children; therefore, the State shall not abridge the role or responsibilities of parents in these matters.
